Some of the on-going projects in 2022 are The 'Pitch Best Practices' guidebook, to drive efficiency in the business of pitching; running an APAC OOH Media Platform 'Outernet 2.0' to establish benchmark regional audience measurements with some of the top advertisers and their agencies; and being the 'bridge' for local AdMarcom community to expand regionally going forward, via the Asian AdMarcom Associations Network (AAAN). These current efforts on the ground aims to make a difference where it matters.

There will be more programmes upcoming, in areas of developing talents and mindsets through training and thought leadership talks, building communities and business; in addition to the well regarded professional competitions (EFFIES Singapore, GONG, Crowbar, APPIES APAC).

AAMS looks forward to working together with our partners in the industry, in growing a strong set of professionals and organisations and be well positioned to tap into upcoming opportunities successfully.
